

THE LAST OF THE 70S

DE ANZA 1979

My dearest Carolyn:

We're only just begun. It's only been two short months and already, I think we have a lasting relationship, And "No you can't change that!" I'm happy I finally found a friend like you that I know I can always trust and know will always be there for me. I hope things between you and John don't change things between us! We'll have to following in your footsteps!

Love always future

Snowball attendant 10th

De Anza Gymnastics

When it comes to records, the Men's Gymnastics Team has consistently been a winner. De Anza is a perennial powerhouse in gymnastics, and this year's squad is no exception. Led by Senior Captains Dan Lammers and Joel Jenkinson, with Junior all-around stand-outs Gregg Wells and Tim Hulen and an impressive corps of specialists including Sr. Mike Lane, Jrs. Chris Wagner and Bob Sharp, and Soph. Jeff Bullio, the team is one of the top three contenders for the Northern California Championships team title. Coach Greg Hetrick, a man dedicated to helping his athletes as well as the sport, has been responsible for the success of the team.

Joel Jenkinson doing a travel circle on the Pommel Horse, a difficult event requiring strength, balance, and swing. Joel hopes to make All-NorCal on the "pig" this year.

Chris Wagner showing style on the Parallel Bars. Chris is also an outstanding vaulter.

All-around Dan Lammers displays his awesome power on the Still Rings, here doing an Olympic Cross. Dan hopes to be an All-American on rings.

Bob Sharp holding an "L" on the Rings. Bob is one of the best tumblers on the team.

It's easy... for him. Gregg Wells holding a handstand on the Parallel Bars. Gregg has outstanding natural talent for gymnastics.

SR. Mike Lane Doing A Front Flip. Mikes events are floor and vaulting

Superman?...No, just Tim Hulen Vaulting. Tim's best event is side horse.

The Wolf Pack

Eyes that burn like smouldering coals,
 ready to roast the red and dripping meat.
 Teeth as sharp as the North wind's frosty tongue,
 swirling off the snow-bound Northern peaks.
 Ears as keen as a freshly whetted axe,
 sharpened to chop down the gnarled Tree of Life.
 Padding feet as silent as the tread of damned souls,
 doomed to pace solemn corridors for eternity.
 And a hunger that dwarfs the pleas of Tantalus,
 in the legends of the sun-dappled Greeks.

The wolf pack.
 Seeking prey in the winter of the world,
 when the frost-gods reign.

—by Matt Duckworth

No, not I

I wake up in the morning the first day,
 The first day of the ninth grade,
 Fearful, scared, shy, and small.
 Such a big place, so many people.

I say to myself, "Don't lose your schedule,
 Go to 1st, then 2nd, then 3rd,"
 And on and on and on...
 How do I get there? Where is that?

I rush through the crowded hall
 meeting new people with nervous smiles,
 Watching out for the gigantic 12th graders,
 Who proudly walk by, cool, calm, and collected.

It's the end of the day, my first.
 I let out a sigh on a crowded 69A
 That I'll be catching
 for three more years...

Tenth grade, first day.
 Cool, calm and collected
 I look way down at the meek little ninth graders.

Of course, I couldn't have ever been like that,

No, not I.

—by Alette Bowers
 Ninth Grade

Sitting alone by the window,
 Watching children play
 Put on a record,
 Music playing
 But you don't hear a word it say
 Try to think
 But your mind grows weak
 Your thoughts just drift away
 worried about money
 Cause you got bills to pay
 Don't give a damn
 Everything is a sham
 Trying to live off a dollar a day
 Start all over, look for a job
 Company's not hiring today
 Want to rob a bank
 But you are scared
 Don't want to bite the bullet today
 What can you do, your children need
 Shoes and the food was gone yesterday
 The rent's coming up
 You can't pay
 Pretty soon won't have nowhere to stay
 Go to the Welfare, ask for help
 Couldn't find a job many a day
 Get an interview
 Social Worker tell you
 She can't give money away.
 Start all over?

The Wiz admirers-Suzie Sakuma, our photographer and Kassandra Knox.

April Smith and Karen Silva seem to enjoy the "Bee-Gees."

Editor-Kristy Vanek

The Oldies, but still single-Margaret Pryde and Bev Howell.

Jamie Weston and Colleen Mulkey, still have the swing of things.

Mr. Brown and his three stooges, Shelly Johnston, Floraine Ball, and Shelly Hensen.

Brad Cox, Brenda Resh and Tom Perelli displaying they're best!

Steve Agnitch and Pat Accruso are first in line for the next Shaun Cassidy Concert!

The real trio, Steve Buchanan, Mart Walters and Tim Grace.

CONGRATULATIONS AND THE BEST OF LUCK

to all of the graduates of 1979

Your accomplishments throughout these past four years
are appreciated in the greatest sense.
The last of the 70's will forever

be remembered by you.
